Islam Peaceful?

Only in Our Dreams...

Interview with Ali Sina by Megan Fox

Published on The Absurd Report on 21/07/2005

Uncomfortable with the incessant reminders from our leaders that Islam is "a religion of peace" (despite the constant bombings by Islamics), I decided to stop listening to politically correct opinions and went to a knowledgeable source. Dr. Ali Sina is the founder of Faith Freedom International, a meeting place for all ex-Muslims who need support and an outreach for Muslims who are struggling within a religion that demands they do unspeakable things. Dr. Sina has written his own testimony linked here, and I highly suggest you read it.

Graciously, Dr. Sina agreed to give me an interview to answer the burning questions I've had since September 11. For the first time I don't feel the need for much commentary because the content of this interview is the most revealing and controversial I have ever heard. Just remember while you're reading, (before you get your PC panties in a twist), Dr. Sina is an expert on Islam, the Koran and the terror we are currently facing. A native of Iran, raised in the Muslim faith, Dr. Sina must be taken seriously and respected for his courage in speaking out against a very unpopular subject. It is foolish for those of us who have no other experiences than American Christianity to refute his views. We are ignorant to the true nature of Islam, regardless of how many Humanities classes or Multiculturalism 101 courses we've taken, no other can claim expertise on Islam but an ex-Muslim.

Without further ado, let's welcome Dr. Ali Sina to The Absurd Report.

MF: Ali, Welcome! I have spent so many hours reading your site and have made you my Hero of the Week at least twice now on Clash Radio. I have to tell you, as an American-born Christian, even I had no idea how wrong and false Islam is. I always knew I hated the extremism but even I fell for the moderate lie that there is a peaceful side of Islam. In the political climate in which we live, it is very difficult to express the idea that Islam is a false religion (or not a religion at all but a political ideology) without being branded as a racist Islamophobe. ESPECIALLY if the one expressing it is a non-Arab Christian. How do you advise non-Muslim, people to spread this message (because so many people are so fooled)?

AS: Thank you, Megan, for inviting me and for your kind words. First of all, let us make this clear. This is not about Arabs. Some Arabs are Christians and some are apostates. They are the salt of the Earth. Arabs had a rich, secular and tolerant culture before they succumbed to Islam. They are very hospitable and friendly people. It is all about Islam. I assure you that if America falls prey to Islam, the Americans will do what Muslims do with the same savagery. American Muslim converts are no better than Saudi terrorists. This is about Islam and Islam alone. We are talking about an ideology of hate. Islam can dehumanize anyone. The majority of Muslims are non-Arabs and they are not by any standard more peaceful.

Now you ask how to spread this message. Boldly! Yes, you would still be accused of Islamophobia and racism. But the public opinion is changing rapidly. Now it is becoming clear that the problem is not with Islamic extremism, but with Islam itself. Now you can actually fire back at those who call you an Islamophobe and call them appeasers and ignorant. Ignorance is not always bliss. People who do not know the danger of Islam and are unwilling to listen are playing into the hands of the enemy. Seventy years ago it was this misguided policy of appeasement epitomized in Neville Chamberlain that allowed Nazism to get out of hand, which brought the death of sixty million people. Extremism is always wrong. Then, there were two extremist positions. On one hand, there was a very evil racist doctrine rising in the heart of Europe and on the other hand there were those who wanted to compromise with this evil and not be confrontational. This was the recipe for disaster. Any time you confront an evil force, you must stand against it strongly. History repeats itself. Today we are again facing a fascistic movement which is much more dangerous than Nazism and we also have leftists and liberals who advocate compromise, want to give more concessions and want to appease the enemy. Churchill said something very profound. He said, “An appeaser is one who feeds a crocodile, hoping it will eat him last.”

Go ahead and speak out. Don't fear being called an Islamophobe. Your fears of Islam are real. Any sensible person who watches the news and can think must fear Islam. Phobia is an irrational and baseless fear. The fear of Islam is not irrational or baseless. Only a fool can see what is going on and not be afraid.

MF: How are you received among Muslims? Do you fear for your life? I am reminded of the Coptic family in NJ who were slaughtered because the man had been online in a Muslim chat room trying to argue against Islam and somehow, murderous thugs found him and murdered his whole family. Does this concern you?*

AS: I have received hundreds of death threats, some of them graphically describing what they will do to me if they catch me. I am also insulted in the vilest ways. However, I am not going to a mosque announcing Islam is false. I try to take care of myself as much as I can.

Only a fool would dare ferocious beasts. The man who mingles among crocodiles, poisonous snakes, or walks into the den of hungry lions is not courageous. He is stupid. Yes, I take Islamic terrorism very seriously. At the same time, I am a soldier. Soldiers go to war trying to dodge the bullets and not get killed, but they know the danger they are putting themselves in. This is my war and I know the risk that I am putting myself in. I am doing my best to keep away from danger, but there is no guarantee in life. If I have to die, my blood is no more precious than the blood of thousands of other innocent people who on daily basis are being killed by the Islamic terrorists. If I do nothing, I could become another victim myself anyway. While I am alive, I will do my best to carry out my duty as a human being and that is to be an instrument of peace. Peace cannot be achieved by compromising and trying to please everyone. It can be achieved by destroying evil which is the cause of war.

MF: What is your view of Muslims and what kind of response do you get to your site warning of the dangers of Islam?*

AS: Muslims are victims. When it comes to religion, they are truly incapable of rational thought. I have studied several other cults such as the cult of Jim Jones, Branch Davidian, Aum Shinrikyo, etc. The followers of cults are not technically stupid people. In fact, some of them can be very smart. But they surrender their intelligence to the cult leader and in matters of faith their thinking becomes skewed.

Islam is a cult, not a religion. I do not want to get into this here, but there is a difference between cults and religions. I have spoken about that in detail in my book The Islam Threat: If You Are Not Scared, You Should Be. Cults brainwash their victims. Muslims' response is the typical response of a cultist. They say that I never understood Islam, my heart is sealed and I can't see the truth that to them is so obvious, that after reading my site their faith in Islam was strengthened, (this is, of course, to deny to themselves the shock that they received), and that I will go to hell. Of course, I already talked about insults and threats. All these are logical fallacies. But to Muslims they make perfect sense. They genuinely can't see the absurdity of it all.

MF: Major news outlets should be interested in the tales of horror on your testimony site. For example, the confessions of the ex-Muslim who drugged, tricked, & blackmailed young Christian women into converting into Islam* only to betray, beat and humiliate them and all of it was done with the sanction of the religion. How is it we don't hear these stories on the news?

AS: We live in a world besieged by Political Correctness (PC). This term was coined by the Bolsheviks and it meant to lie expediently when telling the truth is not in accordance to the Marxist Leninist Party Line. Today P.C. means the same as it did then. It means concealing the truth if it does not suit the Leftists ideology and their situational ethics.

Take for example the feminists. Great idea! I am all for the equality of genders and against the violence and abuse of women. That is the feminist slogan. However, if this abuse happens in Islamic countries, these very hardened feminists become tongue-tied. Why? It is because it is not politically correct to criticize Islam. Then these abuses are no more human right abuses, but just cultural nuances. Muslim women can be beaten by their husbands, their human rights trampled, they can live like slaves, their genitals mutilated and they can be stoned to death, and yet you hear not a squeak of protest from feminists. They say it is all cultural and even rebuke you for being intolerant and insensitive of other cultures if you speak out.

But they never criticize Islam, because the criticism of Islam is not politically correct. However, it is politically correct to criticize Judeo-Christianity. In fact, the more you malign Judeo-Christianity, the more intellectual you appear, but woe to you racist bigot if you dare raise an eyebrow over people of other cultures. These people are considered to be in the minority, even though they are actually the majority. You should treat them with the same reverence that you would treat an endangered species. You must respect their culture, no matter how obnoxious it may be. Why? Because a few hundred years ago your colonialist ancestors committed lots of cruelty against their ancestors.

Now this is your penitence. This is why you don't hear criticism of Islam in the Media. Political Correctness means self deception. We can change this if a few of us dare this sick culture and tell the truth even if the truth may hurt someone's sensitivity. That is his problem, not ours. We must not, of course, tolerate racism. Apart from the fact that we have no choice in our race and it would be injustice to discriminate against someone because of his race, there is not a shred of scientific evidence to show one race is superior to another. So racism is not just morally wrong, it is also scientifically wrong. But Islam is not a race; it is a doctrine. It is a belief system and like all belief systems it is independent of those who follow it. When you criticize Nazism, you are not criticizing the Germans. We must make this distinction and criticize Islam without being racist. Don't be afraid! Speak the truth. If you read the Quran that says non-believers are impure, say that as an unbeliever you are offended by this verse and ask Muslims what they are going to do about it. They must either reject this verse and hundreds of other verses that are bigoted, violent and racist, or leave your country. If they think you are filthy because of your disbelief, what the hell are they doing here? Another reason the leftists can't bring themselves to denounce Islam is because they want to lobby the votes of Muslims. Because of that they would do anything to appease the Muslims, including maligning their own country and taking the blame.

Years ago, when I started my fight, criticizing Islam was taboo. Now things are changing. Many westerners wrote to advise me to tone down; but after reading a few of the articles posted in www.faithfreedom.org they all changed their minds and now they are fully supporting me. Truth is very powerful. It has the power to change your mind.

MF: In one of your latest articles you said that Muslims are like "brain dead zombies". If this is so, what choice do we have but total annihilation?*

AS: Dear Megan, Muslims are humans just like you and I. They become brain dead zombies only in matters of religion. All cultists are brainless zombies. Don't you think the 900 followers of Jim Jones who drank poison voluntarily and administered it to their children, or the educated members of the Solar Temple who committed mass suicide to meet the extraterrestrials navigating in the tail of the comet Haley, or the followers of David Koresh, John de Ruiter, Scientology or all other cults were/are brain dead zombies? You don't kill people for being brain dead zombies. You try to enlighten them. This is what I try to do. On one hand, I try to help Muslims see the light and leave this cult of hate and on the other hand I try to make others see Muslims as victims and not the villains. No. I do not think people should be annihilated just because they are brain dead zombies. Many of these brain dead zombies have been rescued and now you can see they are very smart and genuinely good people. Most of us writing for Faith Freedom International were one day part of these brain dead zombies. We are not creme de la creme of Muslims. The rest have had no chance to see the truth. Leaving one's faith is not easy.

Now I am Persian and I speak hyperbolically. This is how we Persians talk. By brain dead zombie I mean irrational. I am not against Christianity. In fact, I love Christianity for it is a religion that preaches love. But when you think rationally, Christianity also makes no sense. It is irrational. In fact, Christians agree with that. That is why we have schools such as fideism in Christianity, especially in Protestantism that teaches reason is irrelevant to religious belief. In a sense, all religious people are fideists and irrational. This is the nature of faith. Faith is acceptance of postulates with no evidence. If we could produce evidence for our faith, then it would be fact, not faith. If irrationality is a sin, then most of humanity is guilty.

No, annihilation is not the answer. That is absurd. Education is the answer. We have to overcome our sick P.C. ethos and demand Muslims answer. Don't try to sweep the dirt under the carpet, wearing a smiley mask as if everything is okay. Bring the discussion of Islam to public and let the Muslims see the absurdity of their faith. Yes, all religions are absurd, but no other religion teaches indiscriminate killing of those who do not agree with it. We should not oppose Islam because it is absurd, but because it is evil and dangerous.

MF: My congratulations to you, Ali, for getting the word "absurd" in one paragraph four times! I should hire you as a branding consultant! Now seriously, if you were running the War on Terror, how would you defeat the threat?*

AS: Terrorism is not like common crime. Criminals do it for easy money. Terrorists do it for an ideology. Quite contrary to what Senator Kerry used to say, you can't fight terrorism the way you fight crime or prostitution. To fight terrorism we must fight the ideology behind it. This is what is missing in this war. We have to inseminate the seeds of doubt in the minds of the Muslim youth, so he may think twice before sacrificing his life for a false promise of a dubious afterlife. Also he has to realize that the zealotry of Islam is not the sign of its divine origin, but because it was created by a psychopath narcissist. All cults are like that. They are intense, demanding and they elevate the cult leader to superhuman proportions.

This is how this war must be fought. Of course, the terrorists must be caught and locked up or killed. We have to fight Islamic militancy militarily, and its ideology ideologically! The ideological fight is much more important than the military fight. We cannot win the military fight. Just think of it. It took only 19 terrorists to kill 3000 people on 9/11. It took only 4 to kill 52 and injure 700 in London. These operations cost them nothing, while it cost us billions. There are millions of terrorists waiting to strike. You do the math.

You ask how about annihilating them? Apart from the fact that this is inhuman, it is not practical either. Would these people sit idle waiting for you to come and shoot them? They are much more militant than we are and they will kill more of us than we can kill them. The whole idea is just insane. There is a sane way. That way is education. During these years I have helped hundreds of Muslims leave Islam. They are now fighting side by side with me and we are becoming an army. If I had to kill Muslims, how many could I have killed and who would have won? We don't want to kill people; we want to enlighten them and bring about a new renaissance.

What we need is to have intensive campaigns against Islam. Bombard the Muslims and non-Muslims with facts about Islam. Muslims will jump up and down, huff and puff, rile and throw a temper and groan, "You are insulting my religion and hurting my sensitivity." To hell with their sensitivity; we must save their lives and the lives of their potential victims. Muslims must wake up and leave Islam. The alternative is the annihilation that you talked about and that is insanity.

MF: What do you believe the reaction would be from this country if Muslim-Americans, who refused to pledge allegiance to America and give up Islam, were detained?*

AS: First a dialogue must take place at the national level. All the media must get involved and must discuss this problem candidly with all bars down. Not the way they are doing it now. Every time they talk about Islamic terrorism, they immediately say, "This is not the real Islam". Where is the real Islam? How do they know this is not the real Islam? Why can no one call a spade a spade? The British parliament is debating a law that would make criticism of Islam a crime. Isn't this insanity?

A Judge in Italy orders Oriana Fallacci, the author of the bestselling book The Force of Reason, to stand trial for her alleged defamation of Islam! This is where we are going wrong. We should encourage criticism of Islam. It just makes no sense that in Christian countries where criticism of Christianity is allowed, criticism of Islam should be banned. One reason is you can say anything you like against Christianity and walk freely, knowing that nothing will happen to you. But when you criticize Islam, Muslims either assassinate you, like Theo Van Gogh, or make riots and people die. So the media is afraid of talking openly about Islam. Basically it means Muslims have managed to intimidate the media and reduce them into dhimmis, i.e. servile subordinates.

I don't care about Muslims giving pledge of allegiance to America. Muslims do that only to gain their footholds. You must never trust the pledges of Muslims. Muhammad signed treaties with his opponents, only to break them when he became powerful. Pledges and treaties for Muslims mean buying time. It only binds you, but not them. They even can pretend to have converted to Christianity to gain your trust and fool you. This is all part of the game of deception. It is called taqiyyah.

Muslims must leave Islam; Islam must be declared a dangerous cult. It must be recognized as the enemy, just as communism was considered the enemy during the Cold War. Mosques must be closed. Their assemblies must be outlawed. Preaching Islam means preaching terrorism; it must be banned. Why do you think the Islamists on campuses target Muslim kids to make their da'wah (religious invitation)? They are already Muslims. Why not give the da'wah to non-Muslims? The reason is they want to convert the practicing Muslims into terrorists. Preaching Islam is against the national security. It must be stopped. The Quran is no different from Mein Kampf. Islam is no different than the racist Creativity Movement. Islam must occupy its own place among dangerous cults, and not among legitimate religions. Freedom of speech must be guaranteed, so people can criticize Islam. If anyone promotes hate, he should be kicked out or jailed. This means the Imams who teach the Quran could lose their freedom.

All these measures may seem drastic, but the alternative is worse.

MF: What is the greatest threat to our safety?

AS: It is very likely that Muslim terrorists will get their hands on a nuclear bomb. Last month a terrorist, a real thug, in a sham election, took the office of presidency in the Islamic Republic of Iran. Unlike his predecessors who were cunning, this thug does not hide his intention of advancing the Islamic Revolution worldwide. We all know what that means. He has reiterated his decision to build nuclear bombs and also to destroy Israel. If we do nothing, American and European cities will become targets of nuclear bombs. It is possible that Osama Bin Laden is hiding in Iran. So the biggest danger today is nuclear bomb and that threat comes from Iran. The Iranian crisis must be resolved soon. That can't be done with talks and negotiations. You don't talk with thugs. But I also do not think a direct attack on Iran would be in the interest of USA. America instead must strengthen the Iranian opposition and help the insurgency. Let the Iranians topple their dictators; you just help them do it.

MF: What has the administration done right in the War on Terror?

AS: The administration has done everything that was humanly possible. I supported the President in his war against the Iraqi dictator Saddam. What would you do if your patient had a malignant tumor? You have to operate. What would you do if one of your limbs was infected by a flesh eating disease? You have to amputate. These operations are not pleasing and they could be very risky. But the cost of doing nothing outweighs the pain of operation. The operation in Iraq proved to be much more difficult than what we had expected. This, however, does not mean it was a mistake.

Unfortunately, there are no guaranties in life and no one can predict the outcome of an operation. The only sure thing is that in the face of evil, doing nothing is the worst option.

I would like to see more border securities, more restrictions against illegal immigrants. Closing down the mosques, declaring Islam an enemy of democracy, start a national debate about Islam. Let Muslims defend their religion if they can. Kick out those who can't give up Islam.

The fact is that no administration can guarantee our safety. We better get used to the idea that our government can do nothing to protect us. We can spend billions of dollars to make, for example, air transportation safe; the terrorist simply move to another target. Targets are infinite; our resources are not.

MF: What has the administration done wrong?

AS: What is wrong is that we have failed to identify the enemy. How can you fight a war when you don't know who is the enemy? We are being hit left and right and all we are doing is try to shield ourselves at exorbitant costs. But we have not identified the enemy and we are not fighting against it. On the contrary, we protect the enemy and try to be friendly with him. This is what is wrong in this war and unless this is changed we will surely lose this war. You can't fight blindfolded and this is exactly what we are doing. It does not matter how strong you are and how weak is your opponent; as long as you are blindfolded, you will lose. The enemy is Islam. Terrorism is only one of the strategies that this enemy uses to subdue us. The other strategy is deception. So on one hand we have the terrorists who kill us by hundreds and thousands and on the other hand we have Muslim apologists who lie through their teeth and say, "Islam means peace".

Fighting against terrorism alone is like trying to win the war against Nazis by fighting against the blitz. That is not the way to win the war. You have to fight the enemy itself. Apart from a handful of people like Robert Spencer, Ibn Warraq, Ayan Hirsi Ali, Craig Winn and the pundits of Faith Freedom International, few are even aware that the problem is with Islam itself. They all want to be 'politically correct' and blame an invisible, unidentifiable ghost that is called Islamic extremism. This is our greatest handicap in this war.

MF: Just today on townhall.com I read two or three articles by conservatives all claiming we must stop "radical" Islam and the "moderate" Muslims need to "reclaim" their religion. They just don't get it! There is no reclaiming a twisted, hate-filled ideology. It's like saying Nazism needs to be restructured for "peaceful" Nazis. NOT POSSIBLE. Getting back to the questions, if you were asked to a roundtable discussion with President George W. Bush and he asked you the following, how would you respond?

AS: What is the root cause of terrorism? The root causes of all terrorisms are terrorist ideologies. The root cause of Islamic terrorism is Islamic ideology.

Are there any peaceful moderate Muslims? No. There can't be any peaceful moderate Muslims, just as there can't be any round squares. Peaceful moderate Muslims are those who do not practice Islam. They are nominal Muslims, but really know nothing about Islam and if they are told the truth they will be shocked. Peaceful Islam means less Islam. Fortunately, the majority of Muslims are of this category. These are the people we want to reach and rescue. However, this does not mean that these nominal Muslims can't become terrorists. In fact, Mohammed Bouyeri claimed to be a sinful Muslim who killed Theo Van Gogh to receive redemption. As long as Muslims believe in the lies of Muhammad, each and every one of them can become a terrorist.

What needs to be done to stop terrorism? Fight Islam. Demolish this ideology with education, forcefully and aggressively. Support writers who are waging this war empty-handedly and at their own cost. Produce and translate anti-Islamic literature and distribute them far and wide. Create a radio program dedicated to discussing Islam, Muhammad and the Quran and have programs in all languages, broadcast it worldwide. This is crucial. Do not export Americanism, but rather elevate the ethnic cultures of the people you want to rescue. Telling people how good THEY are wins you more friends than by telling them how good YOU are.

The first thing Islam did after subduing its victims was to despise their cultural heritage. Try to revive that culture and compare its superiority to Islam. Restore the pride of Muslim nations. These people have lost their identity and now seek their glory in Islam. Like any narcissist, Muhammad first humiliated them, took away their sense of pride, reduced their self-esteem and as the result they have developed a co-dependency syndrome towards the narcissist Muhammad and think without Islam they are worth nothing.

Unmask the crimes and vices of Muhammad and present it in the light of truth, without trying to sugarcoat it. Highlight the stupidities of the Quran. Show the Muslims that far from being a book of miracle this book is a hoax. It is replete with scientific heresies, historic blunders, mathematical mistakes, logical absurdities, grammatical errors and ethical fallacies. Sow the seeds of doubt in the minds of the Muslim youth so they think twice before offering themselves to become suicide bombers for a false promise of an orgiastic afterlife.

In this war, your best allies are the ex-Muslims. They are the mortal enemies of Islam and at the same time they have compassion for Muslims. They know Islam from inside out. But most importantly they know the minds of Muslims. That is a valuable insight that you can't gain by reading books. We do not want to alienate Muslims but win them as friends. The beauty of this war is that when you are victorious, the enemy becomes your best ally and another soldier in the war against ignorance. We do not need daisy cutters, warships, tanks, guns and bullets to win this war. All we need is truth and means to spread that truth. Of course, this can't be an open strategy of the government, at least not yet. The President cannot announce we are launching a war against Islam. That would bring more death to the Americans everywhere. The ideological war is already being fought. All the government has to do is to support it discreetly.

What is the most important thing you think the president should know? I think the President should realize that Islam is not yet one more religion in the pantheon of American religions. It is not an addition to the American diversity rainbow. If America is described as a melting pot, Muslims are not going to integrate ever. They resist assimilation. They will remain hard like pieces of rock and will spoil your stew. I want the president to know that Islam is a political movement. Its aim is to take over its host country. Religion is only a mask. The aim is conquest and subversion. All you have to do is to look at Iran, look at Egypt, India (Pakistan), Iraq and Turkey and see what Islam did to these countries. Their governments were subdued, their cultures were vilified and Islamic tyranny was established. Islam will do the same to America. It intends to topple the democracies and establish Khilafat. Because Islam is political, it is up to our governments to fight against it and save our country, our constitution and our democracy. I also want the President to know that his noble fight to bring democracy to the world has a formidable enemy and that is Islam. Unless he addresses this problem, his plans are going to be thwarted.

MF: There are several reports and rumors circulating about Osama Bin Laden acquiring Russian suitcase nukes that are said to be in the U.S. already. What is your opinion on why they have not been used if they are here?

AS: I am not sure whether these reports are accurate. But if they are, it is likely that they are trying to bring more of them so they can bring America to its knees. They would first detonate a few of these bombs in several cities, causing the deaths of millions and then they would threaten that if America does not submit to Islam they will blow up more cities. If what you say is true, then we are out of time. Osama Bin Laden, or Ayatollah Khamanei and his newly appointed thug Ahmadinejad will then order you how to live your life or another city will be nuked. Only fools would underestimate the power of evil.

The only thing that I can think of is to tell the Muslims world that we hold them responsible and they must denounce the violence of the Quran, which means denounce the Quran itself. Then threaten all Muslim countries that if an American or European city is hit by nuclear bomb, without any delay or discussion 100 Muslim cities including Mecca and Medina would be incinerated. This is called Mutual Assured Destruction (MAD) and it worked during the Cold War. Would it work with Muslims? It is hard to say, because with Muslims, we have an element of insanity that was absent in communism. Communists, like us, wanted a better life here in this world, their method was different. Muslims hold in contempt life in this world. They celebrate death. So MAD with Muslims may not work.

But also there is another point. Muslims are narcissists. They all live in Muhammad's narcissistic bubble universe. They all think like him and evince his symptoms of personality disorder. Narcissists are bullies when their opponent is weak, but they are also very cowardly. If they are threatened and they perceive the threat as serious, they back off. If you want to subdue Muslims, you have to make them fear you. This is how you make a bully back off.

The biggest mistake in dealing with bullies is to negotiate with them, to compromise and to appease them.

Now you may ask if this is so then why Saddam Hussein did not back off. The answer is that he had the false hope that France, Germany and his other friends would come to rescue him up until the last minute. Narcissists live in a world of fantasy. Their world is very different from ours. If it was not for France's dogged support of the Iraqi dictator, that war would probably never have been fought and Saddam and his sons would have left with their stolen money.

MF: A Muslim man was beaten to death in England this week and the crime was said to be racially motivated. Free people are getting frustrated and feel helpless in the face of a terror we seem unable to control. What is your opinion of the best way to stop innocent people from being the brunt of public anger?*

AS: You can't stop that. This is a normal reaction. I warned about this backlash a few years ago. Recently Italian authorities broke up a vigilante group that was set up to hunt down Islamists. Some of its members were police officers. This is inevitable. If you don't deal with Islamic problem head on, people will take the matter in their own hands. If you take away their pen, they will pick up the gun. Either we have to start telling the truth about Islam or brace ourselves for the rise of fascism and a bloodbath in our cities.

WE MUST FIGHT ISLAM. There is no other alternative. This is the simplest, the cheapest and the most effective way to fight and win this war. And it requires no bloodshed. The alternative is just insanity. If we do nothing, if we ban criticism of Islam, Muslims will be hunted and killed by neo-fascists and there is nothing we can do to stop that. There is only a limit to people's patience. Once they and their loved ones are threatened, their instinct of survival kicks in and they can become animals. We can pass all the laws we want, but we cannot change the human nature. If the governments fail to address this problem, people will do it in their own way.

MF: What is the Muslim reaction to the apologists here? (Like Senator Dick Durbin who compared our soldiers to Nazis and Soviets, and President Bush who calls Islam peaceful.)

AS: Senator Dick Durbin is a very confused man. With these misguided remarks that are informed only by his ignorance, he is fueling the Islamic frenzy and giving all the ammunition that the Islamists need. It is virtually an endorsement of terrorism. He is telling the terrorists that you are right, we are bad, we deserve it. This is reprehensible, to say the least. How people like him become Senators is beyond me. With friends like Dick Durbin, America does not need enemies. Of course, the reaction of Muslims is jubilation. People like Michael Moore, Noam Chomsky, Edward Said, and may I add many Democrats are intellectual terrorists. They add fuel to this fire by telling the Islamic terrorists that they are right.

As for the President calling Islam a religion of peace, he should stop doing it. I do not expect the President denounce Islam publicly. After all, he is the President and he should play his political game. But he is not a scholar of Islam; he knows nothing about Islam. Mr. Bush and Mr. Blair should refrain from passing judgments about things they do not know. If our politicians can't condemn Islam openly yet, the least they should do is stop being its apologists.

MF: Do true Muslims value peace?

AS: True Muslims are those who adhere to the Quran and Sunna (examples set by Muhammad). These Muslims do not value peace at all. In fact, they disdain it. They value death and martyrdom. They follow the examples of Muhammad and he was a man of war. He despised those who brought excuses for not going to war. In the heat of summer he launched a massive raid on Tabuk in Syria. A few thought it was too hot to go and decided to stay home. For them he wrote:

Those who were left behind (in the Tabuk expedition) rejoiced in their inaction behind the back of the Messenger of Allah: they hated to strive and fight, with their goods and their persons, in the cause of Allah: they said, "Go not forth in the heat." Say, "The fire of Hell is fiercer in heat." If only they could understand! 9:81

Elsewhere he said: Fighting is prescribed for you, and ye dislike it. But it is possible that ye dislike a thing which is good for you, and that ye love a thing which is bad for you. But Allah knoweth, and ye know not. 2:216

Those Muslims who value peace are not ‘real’ Muslims. They are good people who out of bad luck were born in an Islamic family and now they think they are Muslims. Or perhaps they have converted to Islam because they were lied to. We must reach these people ASAP. They are not terrorists, but they are the backbone of terrorism. If they leave Islam, Islam will die too and with it Islamic terrorism. Therefore, although the majority of Muslims are peace-loving and good people, it does not mean they are not responsible for the terrorist activities of their co-religionists. If these wishy-washy, so-called “peaceful Muslims” leave Islam, Islamic terrorism will cease at once.

MF: Thank you Ali. Your time and knowledge is much appreciated. Readers, please visit Mr. Sina's site at www.faithfreedom.org to read exactly why we need to start classifying Islam as an ideology of hate and declassifying it as a religion. Educate yourselves. We know the mainstream media will not do it for you! I intend to spend a lot more time exposing Islam for the hoax that it is. Stay tuned for a report on the heinous crimes of Muhammed.
